Housekeeping

- Breaks and lunch are built into the agenda
  - Please stay seated in the auditorium and remain silent for our presenters today
- Remember to silence your phones and devices to avoid distraction during sessions
- Restrooms are located straight down the hall, past the lobby
- Water and soda are available in the refrigerator in the side room
- If there is time, we will have Q&A after each session. Microphones are located on the tables throughout the auditorium. If there isn't time, we'll try to take questions at the end of each day or forward your questions to the most appropriate person at the end of the day.
